

THE CRY HAVOC COMPANY

Gender Identity and Expression

- CRY HAVOC does not discriminate on the basis of gender identity or expression.
- CRY HAVOC encourages artists of all gender identities to participate in our workshops and programs.
- CRY HAVOC recognizes that trans and non-binary people with intersecting identities (including and not limited to ethnicity, disability, sexuality, class) are the most excluded and underrepresented.
- CRY HAVOC believes that artists from underrepresented and marginalized groups should not be additionally burdened to inform/educate others.
- CRY HAVOC will never cast a cisgender person in a trans or non-binary role.
- CRY HAVOC will actively seek casting and staffing opportunities for trans or non-binary artists in any role or position regardless of gender.
